Re: Public Records Act Request – Police Disciplinary Records

Dear MuckRock News:

As indicated in our prior correspondence, the City of Clovis (“Clovis or City”) is in receipt of your California Public Records Act (“CPRA”) request (“Records Request”) related to public records on police use of force investigations, sustained findings of police dishonesty and sexual assault.

We previously informed you that Clovis would make all reasonable efforts to provide you with responsive, non-exempt records in a manner consistent with the CPRA by May 10, 2019. After a thorough review of the records, the City has identified files responsive to your request.

The files identified include both written reports and audio/video files. The files which are currently producible and which are not prohibited from production at this time include 1,786 pages and 52 CD’s with audio/video files. As you are aware there is currently litigation in the courts involving the new law. The City will produce the written records, unless there are court decisions which dictate otherwise, after receipt of a check in the amount of $178.60 and after the written records have been redacted. At this time, due to the cost of redacting audio/video files, the City does not intend to produce the audio/video files. However, if you would like those files produced, please let me know and we will determine the cost of redaction, and upon receipt of the same, will also produce those records.

Of the files identified, there are additionally three files that are subject to pending litigation matters. Therefore, until the litigation is completed, the City will be unable to produce those files. The three files include 1,298 pages and 7 CD’s with audio/video files. We will maintain these records, and upon the conclusion of the litigation matters, we will provide the written records after receipt of a check in the amount of $129.80. At this time due to the cost of redacting audio/video files, the City does not intend to produce the audio/video files. However, if you would like those files produced, please let me know and we will determine the cost of redaction, and upon receipt of the same, will also produce those records.
